A portable television, table model radio, E.C.A. record player and many other valuable prizes will be given at the first annual BAZAAR and CARNIVAL of the Wintersburg Japanese Presbyterian Church in Huntington Beach this coming Saturday, Oct. 12 from 5 to 11 p.m.

Most of the prizes will be given during the carnival; others will be given as door prizes. There will be approximately fourteen booths of games for young and old, booths of good foods from oushie to tacos to good ole hot dogs.

There will also be an auction at the end of the carnival with more tempting foods and most wonderful merchandise of all sorts, which were donated by the local merchants and surrounding areas.

The Tamura Nisei Trading of Los Angeles has donated a portable television set. Some of these items include a Bar-B-Q china set, tableware, lovely vases, groceries, gift certificates and countless other fine items. Henry Kanogae, chairman of the prizes and donations states that this is only a few of the wonderful items that are still pouring in.

Scripts for the drawing are being sold by members of the church chairmanned by George Kanno, who has given us a good report. Mrs. Kazuko Tamura is in charge of the Baked goods booth. Dave Tamura is in charge of the games and states that new games will be in store for everyone. There are also lots of giant pandas and a seal for prizes. Prices will be reduced for the younger sets.

Kap Tamura is the general chairman of the event and the Rev. Tetsuo Saito is acting as advisor. To get to the church from the Los Angeles area, turn right on Santa Ana freeway into Highway 29, then turn right again on Wintersburg Rd. The church is located on the corner of Wintersburg and Nichols in Huntington Beach. Proceeds from the event will go to the church fund.
